

RaPAL Regional Colloquia 2015

Reflections in Lifelong Lifewide Learner Journeys

RaPAL represents practitioners, learners and researchers in the field of adult literacies in the UK, Ireland and around the world.

Conference Themes

We invite discussion and contribution to our interactive workshops, posters and discussions to promote successful interaction in teaching, learning and assessment with learners; and practitioners own research-rich CPD. The morning aims to bring together models of professional practice reflective activity, diverse teaching and learning strategies, and practical support for small-scale practitioner research.

Ticketing at £12, is heavily subsidised, including refreshments, to support practitioners and other stakeholders to participate.

Members free. We look forward to seeing you there.

RaPAL

Research and Practice in Adult Literacies

Glasgow

Merseyside

Cardiff

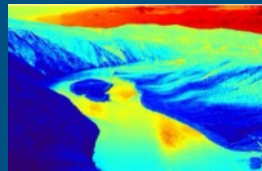

London

Friday, 19th June 2015
09:30 - 13:00

"Of man river, dot of man river,
He must know sumpin', but don't say nothin'
He just keep rollin',
He keeps on rollin' along."

(Oscar Hammerstein II, librettist, 1895 - 1960)

www.rapal.org.uk